

Presentation Rubric

| | |
|---|--|
| 4 | <ul style="list-style-type: none">■ Note cards are minimal, neat, clear and concise.■ Visuals are appropriate to the presentation, of excellent quality and enrich the presentation.■ Presentation is well-organized and has a good "flow."■ Presenter follows the rules of a good speaker: looks at the audience while speaking, speaks in a loud clear voice, speaks slowly and pronounces words clearly, easily attracts the audience's attention. |
| 3 | <ul style="list-style-type: none">■ Note cards are minimal, clear and concise.■ Visuals are appropriate to the presentation and of good quality.■ Presentation is well-organized.■ Presenter follows the rules of a good speaker: looks at the audience while speaking, speaks in a loud clear voice, speaks slowly and pronounces words clearly. |
| 2 | <ul style="list-style-type: none">■ Note cards are minimal, but not clear or concise.■ Visuals are appropriate to the presentation, but are of poor quality.■ Presentation is mostly well-organized.■ Presenter follows most of the rules of a good speaker: looks at the audience while speaking, speaks in a loud clear voice, speaks slowly and pronounces words clearly. |
| 1 | <ul style="list-style-type: none">■ Note cards are minimal, but contain too much information on each card.■ Visuals detract from the presentation.■ Presentation is somewhat organized.■ Presenter follows some of the rules of a good speaker: looks at the audience while speaking, speaks in a loud clear voice, speaks slowly and pronounces words clearly. |
| 0 | <ul style="list-style-type: none">■ Note cards are too many and contain too much information, or non-existent.■ Visuals are non-existent.■ Presentation is not organized.■ Presenter follows none of the rules of a good speaker: looks at the audience while speaking, speaks in a loud clear voice, speaks slowly and pronounces words clearly. |